Higgins Case Returned to Superior Court

The four year old suit against Desert Braemar by Robert C. Higgins, was thrown back into the hands of the Superior Court this week by the Fourth District Court of Appeals, which directed that the case "go to the jury."

Higgins filed a mechanics lien against Desert Braemar some four years ago for a total of $130,000.

The first trial lasted only a few days before the judge discharged the jury without the case going to it. In the first trial Higgins was represented by Merrill Brown, now a Superior Court judge, and Desert Braemar was represented by the law firm of Thompson and Colegate.

The case was appealed to the Fourth District Court of Appeals, which reversed the decision of the Superior Court and ordered the case reheard and sent to the jury. Palm Springs attorney James Hollowell will represent the plaintiff in the case.

The firm of Colegate and Thompson can take the case to the State Supreme Court to appeal the decision of the appellate court.

Manslaughter Charge Against Barnes Dropped

Phillip Morris Barnes, 23, Thousand Palms, charged last November with manslaughter in the death of Salvatore Alaimo, 23, of Palm Springs, after Alaimo allegedly dropped from Barnes moving car, was cleared of the charge in justice court here Tuesday when Judge Eugene Theriau dismissed the case.

A coroner's jury had exonerated Barnes shortly after the incident, but Barnes was held for court action. Judge Theriau ruled evidence did not support the action. Barnes had related in November that Alaimo attempted to crash through a window into his car, and had hung onto the vehicle as Barnes drove away to end a dispute.

CHEST DRIVE TO START ON JAN. 23

The Palm Springs Community Chest will call on this city to open its heart—and its purse strings—wider than it ever has before on Jan. 23 when the 1961 campaign begins its search for $98,000 to operate a total of eight charity and character-building facilities.

Concurrent with the announcement of the campaign, it was revealed that an anonymous donor has already given a check for $5,000 to the Community Chest's 1961 fund drive. The check marks one of the largest single contributions ever received by the Palm Springs Community Chest.

A THUNDERBOLT, 19-day campaign aimed at informing the community of the need, collecting the funds and halting the drive is planned by the Chest here.

"In past years we have seen the drive stretch out for weeks and weeks here," said Chest President Hardin Hart. "We feel that if the conscience of the community is properly awakened we can complete our job in three weeks time."

Teams of contribution workers will compete with one another in the campaign, Hart noted.

ALTHOUGH THE $98,000 budget represents the largest amount ever sought by the Chest here, the need in the eight Chest agencies is "at an all-time peak, too," the three co-chairmen of the drive said in a prepared statement. The three are Fred Anderson, Rev. F. A. Barnhill and Lester Selig. Largest single recipient of the campaign is to be the Palm Springs Boys Club, budgeted for $28,345 by the Chest.

OTHER BUDGETS include: Youth Center, $15,710; Welfare and Friendly Aid Society, $12,735; Desert Museum, $10,000; Boy Scouts, $9,821; Girl Scouts, $5,900;

SITUATION IN LAOS STILL TERMED 'VERY CRITICAL'

Hotel Group Backs Bonds For Airport

Endorses City's Resolution on Railway Express

Members of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Owners Association offered strong support to the city campaign for voter approval March 14 of the airport purchase bond issue, after city manager Dan Wagner spoke to the Association's luncheon meeting in the Riviera Hotel Tuesday.

More than $200 was pledged for an educational and publicity fund for the issue, after association president Sig Ehrens told his members "this work must be done by a citizen's committee."

THE ASSOCIATION endorsed the expected city council resolution — already drafted and tentatively approved — supporting the Railway Express Company's application to consolidate service here through the Indio office.

J. M. McFadden, special unpaid city consultant, explained that the Express firm offers increased service, reduced rates and support for the continued operation of the West Palm Springs depot.

EHRENS REPORTED a report from the mountain time committee will be forthcoming. Emphasizing that "we need the hours of sunshine in the winter," he urged support of the proposal to place Palm Springs in the same time zone as Phoenix and Tucson.

The association endorsed a draft of a city ordinance which would govern visits of minors and minor children to this community year around. The ordinance, obviously aimed at curbing some disturbances here Easter week when high school and college students arrive for a week's vacation, is not designed to prevent visits here of any age group, city attorney Jerry Bunker explained.

Man Robbed At Gunpoint At Home Here

A 28-year-old man working at the home of Producer Jack Warner, was robbed at gunpoint Monday night about 10:30 p.m., but did not report the incident until Tuesday morning.

Domenico Covella, Inglewood, reported to Palm Springs police yesterday that he had just arrived at the home in the Calhulla Hills, when a man approached the car from in front, shining a light in his eyes. As he stepped from the car a second man put a gun in his back and said "don't move."

The gunman removed a wallet from Covella's back pocket, extracted some $62 from it and handed the wallet to him saying, "I just wanted the money . . . now open the door and get inside."

After Covella was back in the car, the two men left on a motorcycle.

DHS VOTERS VETO CITY, 466 TO 332

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Nearly 80 per cent of the qualified voters here surged to the polls Tuesday to vote down incorporation for this community 466 to 332. The 1,011 qualified voters cast 798 ballots.

Strongest vote against the proposal was tallied in precinct one where 312 no votes were cast against 176 yes. The district is thought to have the heaviest percentage of retired property owners in the community.

IN PRECINCT TWO, the measure gained a close victory, with 156 yes to 154 no. Thirteen absentee ballots could strengthen or reverse the precinct two count. Eight absentee ballots were cast in precinct one.

The absentee votes will be counted during the official vote canvass.

LEADING CITY council candidate was Sam Benton, who opposed incorporation. Benton tallied 412 votes. Howard E. Carr, chairman of the committee for incorporation, gained 329 votes. James G. Pack received 322, and Walter Klocke, also declared against incorporation, received 290, with 266 cast for Glen Kephart.

Voters cast five write-in ballots for three candidates to supplement the field of 21 candidates for the five councilmanic seats. Sixteen votes were given Austin Finch, whose name was on the ballot, but who was not a candidate.

COACHELLA — A 36-year-old man was electrocuted here at approximately 5 p.m., Tuesday, when a tall television antenna he was attempting to hold upright on the ground apparently slipped into a main electrical transmission line over his house, sheriff's Lt. Vernon Woodward said today.

Dead is George "Andy" Dale, of Avenue 58 and Monroe here. His wife, Mrs. Carolyn Virginia Dale, 24, received electrical burns in the accident, but was reported in good condition today.

Dale, wearing a pair of light thong shoes, was standing beside his house in an area dampened by a dripping faucet when he attempted to hold the 32 feet, eight inch antenna upright, sheriff's investigators said. His wife was helping him steady the long metal standard when it apparently swayed into the power line, witness Donald Jones, a neighbor, told officers.

STORY IN SUN BRINGS RETURN OF LIPSTICK

A news story in The Daily Desert brought about the recovery of a $600 jewel-cased lipstick reported lost by Mrs. Eleanor Lambert Burkson of New York last week.

The expensive lipstick, interred with rubies and sapphires, was found this weekend by Mrs. Evelyn Eason of 576 Desert View Drive, a waitress at Sambo's Pancake House.

The lipstick was found in the parking lot at Sambo's, and after Mrs. Eason saw the story in the paper, she took it to the police department.

France, U.S. Meet On Crisis

WASHINGTON (UPI) — French Ambassador Herve Alphand said today after a conference with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter that the situation in Laos is "very critical."

Alphand said the Western allies are still seeking a method to stabilize the war-torn country.

Alphand told reporters that his 40-minute talk with Herter was concerned entirely with Laos, where the new government of pro-American Prince Boun Oum is battling for its life against Soviet-supported and Communist-led rebels.

THE ENVOY SAID the United States, France and other Western allies are united in desiring "an independent Laos with no intervention from outside" in accord with the Geneva Conference decisions of 1954.

Alphand acknowledged that the Western powers still have not agreed on what type of international solution to seek for Laos.

RUSSIA HAS TOLD this government that it will not recognize the new pro-American government in Laos.

U.S. officials said today the Soviet stand was emphasized by Russian Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov during his 40-minute conference Tuesday with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

THE SOVIET ENVOY challenged the legality of the government headed by Prince Boun Oum. Menshikov restated the Soviet contention that legal power still rests with neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma, who fled to Cambodia last month when pro-Western and Communist forces became locked in battle for the capital city of Vientiane.

It was also disclosed that President Eisenhower has sent a message to Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru urging India to join "other free nations" in working for an international solution which would guarantee an independent Laos against foreign aggression or subversion.

Bob Hope Rests Under Doctor's Orders at Home

Bob Hope, 56, is resting up under doctor's orders.

The energetic comedian "pooped out" of a pro-celebrity match last week in Los Angeles after playing five holes, but he was able to keep business appointments later in the day.

"I'll stay in Palm Springs for three or four days' rest, then I'm heading east for some benefits and other appearances," Hope said Tuesday. "I feel pretty good, but the doctor has given me some medicine for my blood pressure."

"It's just a matter of slowing down the pace, and that's exactly what I'm doing now."

County Probe Of Building Dept. Ordered

'Serious Morale' Problem Cited By Anderson

A complete investigation of operations in the county building department was ordered by the Board of Supervisors this week at the suggestion of Supervisor Paul Anderson. "There is a serious morale problem in the department," said Anderson, "and some employees have been summarily dismissed. I've received several complaints."

Anderson proposed the employment of an analyst to assist the administrative officer in checking on operation of the building department with the idea of effecting a proper system. "It needs study," he said.

SUPERVISOR GEORGE Berkey proposed that steps be taken to fill the position of administrative analyst as assistant to the administrative officer and that analysis of the building department be his first assignment. He pointed out that the position had been created to provide an assistant to the administrative officer to handle details for which he does not have time.

"That's not warranted," objected Supervisor Fred McCall. "If a department needs overhauling the administrative officer should investigate it himself."

"I'M AGAINST HIRING someone to do the job," agreed Supervisor William Jones.

A motion by Anderson, seconded by Berkey, that the position be filled and funds for the salary be provided from the unappropriated reserve failed to carry with opposition voted by Jones and McCall, and the county's newest supervisor, Norman Davis not voting. "Without further knowledge I have to pass my vote," said Davis.

The supervisors then voted unanimously to instruct the administrative officer to embark on an analysis of building department procedure and recommend ways of bettering operation of the department.

THE INVESTIGATION order was sparked off by a proposal by Supervisor Anderson that fees for checking building plans be cut in half. His suggestion was unanimously supported by the other supervisors and county counsel was instructed to draw up necessary documents to effect a 50 per cent reduction in the fee. "I'd go further than that," commented Supervisor Jones and eliminate the fee entirely, at least so far as residences are concerned. The fees are excessive in all categories."

SEETERRA'S PLAN GETS SOLID FORM

By FRED C. WEIGEL

Seeterra, Inc., the organization behind one of the most unusual shopping centers in Palm Springs, will soon open the new Market Basket and Thrifty Drug stores on McCallum Way.

The opening of these two stores, along with the already open Palm Springs Lanes, will be followed immediately with the completion of construction of the Winchell Donut Store, barber and beauty shops, and an automatic laundry.

BY THE TIME these latter stores are occupied by their lessors, construction will have already started on a new bank, to be adjacent to the Thrifty Drug Store.

The big project now under way at the Development is the grading, widening and extension of Farrell Drive between Tahquitz-McCallum and Andreas Road to the north and Ramon Road to the south. Seeterra, Inc., is also joining with the school district for the paving of Baristo from its present pavement east to Farrell Drive.

ALL THE ROAD improvements now being installed in the area are being paid for without city finances by the developers of the Shopping Center.

Burned Child Has 'Chance' To Survive

10 Blood Donors Give Pint of Blood to Youngster

LAS VEGAS — (UPI) — A critically burned 3-year-old girl's chances of surviving are now considered improved — thanks to 10 persons she has never seen.

Nine men and a woman met for the first time Monday but they had lots in common.

EACH HAD ONCE been burned over at least 20 per cent of the body, each had type B negative blood (found in less than 2 per cent of the population) and each wanted to help save the life of little Julia Howe.

She was burned over 50 per cent of her body eight days ago when her bathrobe caught on fire while she played with a cigarette lighter.

NINE OF THEM TRAVELED from Los Angeles aboard an Air Force plane and the 10th flew in from Utah Monday so they could each donate a pint of blood to Julia.

"She looks very good today, a lot better than before," said Dr. Richard O'Neil at Nellis Air Force Base here. "We at least have some high hopes now."

For four hours, Julia lay in her hospital bed while the blood of the donors was substituted for her own blood. Doctors hoped the blood of previous burn victims contained antibodies which would help Julia pull through. No more exchanges of blood were planned.

FOR SIX MORE HOURS Julia underwent surgery to graft skin from her father, Marine Sgt. Gilbert Howe, onto her arms.

Her mother, Virginia, spent the nerve-racking day either by her side or in an adjoining room praying. The couple has three other young children.

After the transfusions, the 10 donors were given a steak dinner by the Air Force and then they flew back to their homes. An 11th person made the trip but found his blood was the wrong type.

"It's very seldom when a person passing through this world gets a chance to do something as worthy as that," said Bill McIte, 34, Cherry Valley, when he got back to Los Angeles.

NOLTE SUFFERED serious burns some years ago in an auto racing accident.

The others, each with his own tale of suffering surrendering the history of his burns, all gave similar motives in making the trip to help little Julia.

Jurist Suspends Bank Robber's Rap

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Naasan Zeghabe's wife and two of his three young daughters waited tensely in court while the black-robed judge determined the confessed bank robber's future.

U.S. District Court Judge Thummond Clark Monday called Zeghabe before him. The sentence, he said, was 10 years in federal prison—suspended.

ZEGHABE, 35, WOULD be able to go home to his family, the active part of his sentence being five years on probation.

"Thank you for giving our daddy back—we need him!" cried Zeghabe's daughter, Nadya, 11. She threw her arms around the judge and loudly kissed him on the cheek.

"I will never give you cause to regret, your honor," said a smiling Zeghabe.

"WHILE THE COURT does not condone your actions," said Clark, "It must look to the future. This seems to be case in which to Sewer main installation on the cross-city $1,550,000 bond project which provides major service expansion here will be completed this week as the Alejo Road line is tied into the Indian Avenue main, city engineer Phil Abrams announced.

The bond project nearing completion provides new sewer service to four complete sections, and portions of four others, Abrams reported. Included in the project also is the new sewage treatment plant now in operation. Pilot runs on the new plant, built at a cost of approximately $460,000, were made in December.

THE NEW SEWER lines, installed since the project began in September, cost approximately $650,000. Service capability is extended to all of sections 13, 14, 23, and 26, and portions of sections 11, 12, 24, and 27, Abrams reported.

The final new line extends along Alejo from Indian Avenue to Avenida Caballeros, south to Tah-quit, east on Tahquitz to Sunrise Way. Another line serves Tachevah to Alejo Road, and other sections extend along Sunrise Way to Baristo Road, on Baristo to Farrell Drive, over to Sunny Dunes, and on Sunny Dunes to the sewage plant at 1000 Calle Santa Cruz.

In the Deepwell area, lines extend from Sunny Dunes to Sunrise Way, on Sunrise to Mesquite, and westward to South Palm Canyon Drive. Other lines serve from Manzanita Avenue to Deepwell Road, and on Deepwell to East Palm Canyon Drive. Lines also extend along Calle Palo Fierro and Calle Encelia. A line serving the new Travelodge now under construction was underwritten by the Travelodge.

INCLUDED IN THE BOND project were mains on Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue, totaling approximately $280,000. Engineering expenses and inspection fees for the total projects are added to the installation costs. A balance of $100,000 remains in the main extension fund, Abrams told The Desert Sun.

City service will be available throughout the districts served as soon as laterals and house connections are installed. The new sewage plant, designed for a 4 million gallon-per-day average run, will serve average needs of a 35,000 population, with peak capacity of twice that number, Abrams explained. The design permits subsequent capacity increase in the current plant.

Union Issues Ultimatum in Lettuce Rift

Eight Conditions Presented for Lettuce Growers

EL CENTRO — Union organizers today demanded lettuce growers in the Imperial Valley meet eight conditions to avert a pending strike threatening the area's multimillion dollar lettuce crop.

THE CONDITIONS set forth by the United Packinghouse Workers of America (UPWA) and the Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee (AWOC), both affiliated with the AFL-CIO, were:

Recognition of AWOC and UPWA as collective bargaining agents for workers.

—Establishment of a $1.25 hourly wage for workers.

—Establishment of sanitary facilities at all farms.

—Provision for a 10-minute rest period every two hours for workers.

—Transportation to and from day hall assembly points.

—SENIORITY RIGHTS in hiring and laying off workers.

—Implementation of a closed shop with a union hiring hall.

—Establishment of piece rates for skilled work whereby workers could earn more than the proposed $1.25 minimum.

Union organizers have threatened to call a strike sometime next week.

Mail Order 'Gator Not Very Cordial

MONROVIA, Calif. — Mrs. Carol Benedictus' new mail order "pet" alligator was more than a little perturbed.

The 18-inch reptile had been confined in a 3-by-6 inch box in a postal trip from New Orleans to this Los Angeles suburb. When Mrs. Benedictus opened the package Monday she received a nasty thing but a cordial greeting. The 'gator sprang out, jaws clacking.

"HE SNAPPED AT ME — you know, getting up on his legs in a defensive position," said Mrs. Benedictus. "I tried to corner him with a larger box, but I couldn't. It finally chased me up on top of a table."

When Mrs. Benedictus thought she could make it to the telephone without being nibbled at by the alligator, she jumped from the table top and called sheriff's deputies.

Intrepid deputies soon corralled the 'gator and placed it in a large pan containing some water. The alligator went to sleep.

BIT MRS. BENEDICTUS' day of surprises wasn't over yet. When she had given the mail order firm $6 during a recent trip to New Orleans to send her the reptile, she thought the firm would place in the box whatever change she had coming along with the 'gator. Instead, she received a small turtle.

The turtle, at least, was apparently happy and did not snap at Mrs. Benedictus.

CAR-NAPPER LAW GOES TO COUNCIL

An ordinance prohibiting the sleeping in cars in Palm Springs will be adopted by the City Council tonight when it meets in regular session to act on almost 40 items, most of them routine business.

Mayor Frank Bogert is expected to appoint Arthur Coffey to a vacancy on the Park and Recreation board, and Coffey was one of three men recommended by the members of the board. The other two were Kelvin K. Larson and Jim Schilling.

THE PLANNING commission has reversed its stand and asked the City Council to appoint a member of the council to a vacancy on the planning commission.

Two public hearings are before the council tonight, for approval of an assessment district at El Cielo and Canon Drive, and the vacation of a 40 foot right-of-way in Section 30.

Four other assessment districts are up for action Wednesday night, as well as four new ordinances which will be introduced.

THE NEW ORDINANCES will include dogs running at large, standards for records of survey for cooperative apartments; starting points for street renumbering, and clarification of underground utility and TV installations.

Other matters up with recommendations by the city manager will include: Resolutions approving occupancy of Richard Crescees at the Pistol Range; authorizing the city attorney to petition the Bureau of Indian Affairs for a sewer rights-of-way; and a request from the Palm Springs Little League to rename a portion of Lienau Village "The John W. Williams Little League Park."

A REQUEST FROM 78 Company for temporary overhead utilities will be considered, and Forrest L. Harding has requested an $18 refund of his building permit.

The council will also act on a request for extension of time for John Huddleston to put in black-top at Rosie's Corn Beef, make certain fund transfers, and approve the purchase of chlorine.

It will also consider and act on seven planning commission items and two applications for sign variances.

FROM HOTEL ROOM

Police Seek Clues In Burglary Here

Police here are seeking clues in a reported $820 burglary believed to have occurred in a local hotel sometime last Wednesday.

Mrs. Omi Yollin, Los Angeles, phoned Palm Springs police that a diamond-studded wristwatch, valued at $500, plus an antique lavaliere watch valued at $300, were missing from her purse, plus $20 cash.

Mrs. Yollin had reported the cash loss to hotel management, but did not notice the jewelry loss until she had returned home, officers said.

Meanwhile, officers are also seeking clues to a "finders-keeper" theft reported by Dr. Hector H. Cruz, Montebello.

Cruz reported he lost his wallet in a theatre Friday evening. When it was found Saturday morning, $250 cash was missing.

Columbia studios today paid $112,500 to two writers who are frequent winter visitors to Palm Springs, the husband-wife team of Mildred and Gordon Gordon, for their novel, "Operation Terror."

COLUMBIA'S EDITORIAL board judged it "the best suspense thriller of the year." The price reportedly was the highest ever paid for a straight suspense novel.

The two, who write under the name of The Gordons, stay at Desert Skies Hotel when in Palm Springs. They are the authors of 10 novels which have sold more than five million copies in 13 countries. "Operation Terror," which is their latest, was published last week by Doubleday.

COLUMBIA WILL STAR Lee Remick in "Operation Terror" which will go before the cameras next summer with Blake Edwards as producer and director.

"Operation Terror," which ran in condensed form in The Ladies Home Journal, will be the March choice of the Guild Book club, and will be published in 11 countries this spring.

AFTER SUNSET

'Marriage Go-Round' First Ferrall Play

By GEORGE LAINE
Circle Jan. 24 on your calendars.

That's the night the Ferrall's Playhouse at Deep Well opens for its 1961 season, a season that appears to top every previous season they've had in this town and some of those have been highly impressive.

The opening show is "Marriage Go-Round," the very droll comedy that wowed the Broadway folks, and it'll star Jan Clayton, who has never had a bad night in this town. Her leading man may be Francis Lederer although that's still in the discussion stages.

AT THE SAME TIME, the Ferrall's announced—a little regretfully, I thought—that their subscription ticket program would be revised to allow usage of any of the 14 tickets in any book at any time for any show. Subject, of course, to seat availability.

The subscription theory in ticket sales isn't some sort of new and revolutionary gimmick that the Ferralls hit upon suddenly this season. Rather, it is the guiding policy for seasonal ticket sales in virtually every theater in the country. (Most of you readers who attend theaters elsewhere know what a subscription ticket means.)

The general reaction to our program for ticket subscriptions was met with some opposition because people felt that if they weren't going to be here to use them they should be allowed to use them when they were here," said Mike Ferrall.

I could argue with that philosophy, Mike, but I will not.

WHAT THE REVISION means, in brief, is that subscribers now will be able to use their seasonal book at the rate of one a week for 14 weeks or up to all 14 tickets on one night.

The scaled house ranges the tickets from $4.50 down to $3.50 down to $2.50 and—for the first time in this town—a new low of $2. (Bought in subscription form, you get 14 of the $4.50 tickets for $55 (or $100 for two books), the $3.50 tickets for $45 (or $90 for two), the $2.50 for $30 (or $50 for two) and no book on the $2 tickets.

The subscription campaign ends on Jan. 31 so if you expect to effect any great savings on this forthcoming season, you'd better move fast. In addition to a really great initial chunk of programming, there are to be several bonus events for subscribers only, the first of which is the opening this Sunday at 4:30 p.m. of the Deep Well Art Gallery, featuring an impressive initial show. (In addition, three British comics—who'll star in the Playhouse's fifth program, "Three to Make Ready"—will be on hand to deliver some bright moments.)

THE REST OF THE information on this 1961 season at the Ferrall's Playhouse at Deep Well is as impressive as any I've seen in any stock company. Get a load of this program:

Jan. 31 — "The Golden Fleece," with John Newton.
Feb. 7 — "The Boyfriend," cast not announced (but the plans are superb).

Feb. 14 — "Third Best Sport," with K. T. Stevens and Hugh Marlowe.
Feb. 21 — "Three to Make Ready," with Susan McGuire, Frank Still and Michael London.

Feb. 28 — "Silent Night, Lonely Night," tentatively set with a great actress in starring role. Release of information not authorized.

March 7 — "The Medium" and "The Telephone," two Gian Carlo Menotti operas of miniature size and mastodon impact. Katherine Hilgenberg of the San Francisco Opera Company has been set for the pair.

March 14 — "Pal Joey," with Jack Cassidy.

MIKE FERRALL informed me that he's already sold over $3,000 worth of subscriptions for this upcoming season, an indication—

PS Camera Club To Hear Lecture Thursday Night

Palm Springs Camera Club members will meet at 8 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 12, in the club room of the Security First National Bank on Ramon Road. "Nearby and Closeup" by Dr. B. J. Kasten, FPSA, a recorded lecture program, is the feature of the meeting.

Dr. Kasten, a biologist, teacher, and salon exhibitor shows how he makes his pictures nearby—his yard—and closeup—highly magnified. The talk includes a discussion of the techniques for making closeups of nature subjects. It can be applied to all types of photography. There are 75 color slides and the taped commentary is 50 minutes.

This is a traveling salon lecture originating with the Photographic Society of America and is a gift to the club by Wendell H. Kenney of Smoke Tree Ranch. Mrs. J.V.C. Gregory represents the Photographic Society. Membership in the camera club is open to photographers of the desert area.

Appreciation Due John Williams

Many people discuss providing activities for children. John W. Williams did something about it.

His $11,000 contribution to complete, light and fence two Little League baseball diamonds ensures that adequate facilities will be available next summer for boys of this community.

This means that there'll be that many less boys who are not running on the streets, that many more who will have a chance for a worthwhile activity.

City Council tonight is being asked to honor Mr. Williams by naming the north end of Lienau Village "The John W. Williams Little League Park." There is no doubt that this will be done.

But in addition every parent here should make it a point upon meeting Mr. Williams to say "Thank You." Without his aid it would have been a difficult campaign to raise the needed funds.

We join the community in expressing appreciation and commend Mr. Williams upon his interest in our youth.

How Was Campaign Coverage?

WASHINGTON, D. C. — "A bunch of the boys were whooping it up . . ." — as the poet once wrote. But this time it was behind the "Members Only" sign at the National Press Club, and somebody asked:

"I wonder if those people who pick the Ten Best Newspapers ever read them?"

AT LEAST THREE newspapers which usually make the Best Ten are on another rather private, informal list which is known as the Three Worst. There is in existence a powerfully researched, but cautiously worded story of 7,000 words by a Washington colleague of mine.

This seasoned reporter, after covering some 200 campaign speeches by Richard Nixon, returned to his base and heard numerous persons say of Nixon that, of course, he lost because he ran a rabby, me-too campaign.

MY COLLEAGUE was astonished to hear such talk because Nixon had, in fact, called his opponent a prevaricator, a fraud and a man whose election would ruin the country. When the astonishment wore off, my colleague sat down to think the mystery through to its solution.

He found that, generally speaking, the persons who had this misimpression of the Nixon campaign were mainly getting their ideas from two of the so-called Best Ten newspapers. He then set to work for several weeks in the Library of Congress and elsewhere checking the news stories of Nixon's campaign.

WHAT HE FOUND in these highly respectable papers was dishonest news "slanting" and biased editing that shook him to his journalistic innards. In the early days of the Republic, and more recently in many backwoods county seats, there have been vigorous but crude samples of partisan reporting or outright "pamphleteering" in political elections.

But what my colleague found, in comparing his own eye and ear witness of the campaign with unfair accounts of it, was the worst kind of trumpery — because it was unctuous, refined and cleverly camouflaged for the deceit of the incautious reader.

BY THE TIME this column is in print, or soon afterwards, the article I have described will probably be accepted for publication. I shall not steal any glory from the author by prematurely giving his name, or any of his facts by mentioning the Two or Three Worst newspapers, as they deserve to be called. But, meanwhile, the lid has been lifted a little in a story by Fletcher Knebel of the Minneapolis Tribune in which it is revealed that Nixon leaves office this month as a man very aggrieved over the coverage of his campaign and at the "double standard" applied to his behavior and that of his opponent.

REPORTER KNEBEL could have made it much stronger without any injury to truth. Nixon is furious! He feels "hatred" or, at best, partisan reporting cost him millions of votes.

I do not know if he accuses the perpetrators of these offenses to their faces, but I have been present when he has done the reverse — by feelingly expressing his thanks to reporters, like Howard Norton of the Baltimore Sun, for writing the truth about the size of crowds, the public reaction, the core of the campaign speeches instead of the ragged edges.

MANY EXAMPLES will come to mind that were written otherwise. The St. Louis Post-Dispatch flamboyantly declared in one piece that the Vice President had invoked "the cruelest of all political weapons — the religious issue."

This was a 180-degree turn-about of the Nixon camp's protest against certain Demo-Laborite attempts to show that a vote for the GOP was a vote for the Ku Klux Klan. The N. Y. Times gave several paragraphs to infer that a Hartford (Conn.) meeting between Lodge and Nixon dealt largely and discordantly with Lodge's unauthorized statement about putting a Negro in the Cabinet.

THERE WAS A story out of Norfolk which built up a Kennedy crowd, which some reporters thought rather sparse, into "walls of people." There were cases of news treatment, news burial, news omission by the N. Y. Times and Washington Post which explain why their readers were so surprised that Nixon came even close to winning.

The upshot of it all seems to be this fearsome question: Is the American press losing credence in the minds of the American public? There is a movement afoot to learn if this is at all true — how true and why true. But if there is to be an investigation, newsmen here want it to be done by newspapers themselves — not by some Foundation or pompous Commission with doctrinaire concepts of how we should run our business. —Holmes Alexander

Wonder How This Is Going to Work?

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Some things work out with logic. As in this case I cite: When they run the traffic heavy, They need the traffic light.

The above is from the type-writer of S. S. Biddle. It came to me, pasted on a post card with a brief comment.

THERE WAS NO signature so I don't know who sent it. The comment was:

"Keep it up, old boy, we DO need traffic lights."

I presume Mr. Anon was referring to that piece last week about the Indian Avenue jam and need for a light at the intersection at McCallum-Tahquitz.

TRAFFIC has thinned out a bit since the holiday week hassle. But it is just the lull before the storm.

Wait until Palm Springs Golf Classic week and until the Angels stage exhibition games at the Polo Grounds.

Wonder what became of that mechanical Stop and Go signal they use to spot at the Palm Canyon Drive-Andreas Road intersection on busy days.

TROUBLE IS, we'd need too many of them. While that intersection was once our busiest, it's just a breeze now compared to a dozen others, we've grown so fast.

Like the man from Banning who said to me the other day after trying to get through town: "It makes me laugh. And you are the people who howled so loud and bitterly about the 'Banning Bottleneck' when you had something going on down here."

USUALLY, as probably most of you do, it takes me a week or so to become accustomed to a new year. It was always January 7 or 8 before I got it right. Like writing "Jan. 4, 1959" on Jan. 4, 1960.

So, right after Christmas I started rehearsing the new date. Did so well that a check came bouncing back. It was dated Dec. 29, 1961.

I EVEN DID IT in public print, writing on Dec. 31 of the "year 1961 grinding to a halt." That brought forth several protests. All of this derision made me happy, too, for if they hadn't read it they wouldn't have noticed the goof.

One of the letters was from Sarah L. Davis of Cathedral who, after calling my attention to the error, wrote:

"Sorry to bother you, but I didn't want to miss 1961, the upside down year."

THERE'S SOMETHING about Palm Springs and the desert. Once here, they always come back.

For instance, Barney Ostrow is back circulating around town. He first came here 35 years ago and in the mid-40s left to go into business first in the mountains and then in Nevada.

But he couldn't get the desert out of his system. He's back again.

STAN DELAPLANE:

That's Show Biz

London has been alternating between Sherlock Holmes-type fogs and a thin, lemony sun that peeps out at midday. Making what England considers fine weather during the winter.

Dark falls early — about 4:30. An excellent time for theater-goers. For plays start at 5, 6 and 7. A much more reasonable hour than our 8:30, which simply divides your appetite between an indigestible rush or fainting hunger.

I GOT TICKETS for "The Mousetrap" at the May Fair Hotel ticket desk. And by 5:30, was in a fourth row red plush seat in The Ambassadors in the West End theater district.

The practical English service tea at your seat. And, off the auditorium, there is a small bar. (Popcorn and candy are for the ruddy Americans.)

"THE MOUSETRAP" has been running for nine years in London. "The longest run for any play in the world!" said the program.

It is a two-act murder mystery, written by Agatha Christie. In the first act, a young couple find they have a suspected murderer in their newly opened guest house. They are cut off by snow. A lady is scragged in a genteel, British fashion. A police inspector arrives — on skis.

BETWEEN ACTS, we went out and had a small drink. (English drinks coffee "small" or "large.") The "small" is just a wistful promise.)

In the second act, the mystery is solved. Curtain. The cast comes on for a bow. And the star asks you not to give away the payoff to your friends. "So that they may enjoy the outcome."

IT SEEMED a rather light show to have a nine-year run. But Londoners are wonderfully faithful to their theaters. I think because the hours are so reasonably suited to dinners.

So to Rule's in Maiden Lane. An annual excursion I make to audition the juggled hare. Or to hear the waiter's excuses why the 'are is not on the card to-night, sir. (It is because the 'are is in his miving season — and the 'are is a lively fellow. Almost always in love.)

The cold snap had slowed the 'are down, it appeared. Much to his ultimate chagrin. For in this state, he appears best on the menu, served with currant jelly.

RULE'S IS AN excellent, antique restaurant. Once I described it as "chandeliered" — it was not but it seemed that it was in retrospect.

Mr. Ken Bell, the director, put in chandeliers. I have great affection for a restaurant that redecorates to back up my mistakes.

It is a softly lit restaurant with ancient English prints, iron cupids drawing the iron bow on the softly lit customers. And a corps of knowledgeable waiters and a more — than — adequate wine list.

I ORDERED THE juggled 'are — Rule's expects me to order juggled hare. And if they will put m chandeliers for me, I will eat the juggled hare when expected.

The wine steward approved my wine choice — the moment of truth. For Rule's judges you as much as you judge the food. And so segueing into Siltton cheese with young onions. Coffee and cognac.

"And we hope you enjoyed the 'are, sir," said the waiter. "And that you will return soon to Rule's."

The 'are, in my opinion, was excellent. Where he made his mistake was falling out of love. A lesson to all of us.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I work in a tavern and have met lots of men. The one I love I met here four years ago. He says I am the only girl he's ever loved and if I weren't for his children and his religion he would get divorced and marry me.

His wife is a nagger and doesn't appreciate anything he does for her. He spends almost every night with me. How dumb can she be not to catch on? She keeps having one baby after another just to hold him. How can I get her to give up? Print this, she might take the hint. STANDING PAT

DEAR STANDING: How dumb can YOU be? You're not taking the hint yourself. Your boy-friend's wife isn't having all those babies without some help from her husband. Obviously she has no intentions of giving up. Why don't you?

DEAR ABBY: My wife has needed to go on a diet for years but she kept putting it off. Suddenly she announced that she and a man who works with her are going to have a weight-lossing contest. Whoever loses the most weight in six weeks has to take the other one out for a steak dinner. Just the two of them. I trust my wife but I don't like the idea of her going out and having a good time with another man. His wife is all for it because she wants him to lose weight. I'm glad my wife is finally going to diet but I don't like the way she's going about it. Am I making something out of nothing? Or should I go along with it and wish them luck? JEALOUS HEART like a good-humored, wholesome contest with a healthy objective. Go along with them and wish them luck — and may the biggest loser win!

DEAR JEALOUS: It sounds

DEAR ABBY: If the general public could see the thousands upon thousands of important letters, expensive greeting cards, announcements of all kind, and priceless snapshots that are being fed into our incinerators every day, they'd soon realize that anything worth mailing is worth a legible return address. WANTED RECOUNT

VENTURA, Calif. (U) — W. R. Hopkins decided it was just too close to accept when he lost the election for Camarillo Justice Court constable by eight votes. So he paid $180 for a recount of 11,279 votes.

The special election board Friday told Hopkins he lost in the recount, too — by one vote.

MISJUDGED POLICE

PITTSBURGH (U) — Numbers operator Donald Garcia, 28, made a bum bet.

He kept on operating his numbers lottery even though he was arrested five times in two years. "I didn't think they (the police) would keep coming back," Garcia told the judge after his sixth arrest.

He was fined $3,650 and sentenced to six months to a year in jail.

TAKES NO CHANCES

SEMOE, Ont. (U) — Aviatrice Jeanette Seaburn has a simple motto for flying — when in doubt, land.

Mis Seaburn brought her small plane in for a landing Friday on a farmer's snow-covered field. She told police she was lost and wanted to find out where she was.

POLICE NOT NEEDED

MONTREAL (U) — The police radio told a patrol car it wasn't needed at an accident scene Friday night.

"A radio car on the scene tells us the vehicle turned over, the occupants got out, turned the car upright, and continued on their way," the dispatcher explained.

WANT MORE HOMEWORK

NEWARK, England (U) — Headmaster Walter Bond, 54, said at least 75 per cent of his 460 pupils complained of being fed up with television and asked for more homework. He promised to oblige.

CRASH MARRIAGES

LONDON (U) — Millionaire Paul Getty, five times married and five times divorced, was quoted by a London newspaper today as saying, "Let's put it this way. If I were a pilot and made five consecutive crash landings I'd probably give up flying."

People...Places...Things...

NEW YORK — People . . . Places . . . Things . . .

Bob Moses, president of the New York World's Fair of 1964, will inquire of President Kennedy, soon after he is ensconced, if it would be improper to invite Red China to exhibit at the Fair.

Moses is in favor of issuing such an invitation and he sees it as a means of renewing some sort of relations between the earth's most powerful and its most populous nations.

"The diplomats on both sides have botched things up long enough," Moses says. "Maybe we can do a better job."

ONE EFFECT OF the crack-down on American spending abroad will be that pro-western countries where we maintain bases will incline toward trade with the foe. West Germany is engaged in trade talks with Communist-controlled Germany. Japan is diligently attempting to renew trade and cultural relations with its one-time No. 1 customer, China.

We save a buck here, we strengthen the enemy there.

CASTRO TOLD AN audience on New Year's Day that the U. S. would need more troops to capture Havana than were used in the invasion of Normandy and Okinawa.

Bunk, and for a simple reason. In Normandy and Okinawa the folks just didn't seem to want us. In Havana, they'd strew roses.

THE TELE(P)ROMPTER people have put on baseball Commissioner Ford Frick's desk a proposition — involving pay-TV — which they claim would end all baseball pension problems and the withering of minor leagues.

They would pay $12,000,000 for the exclusive rights to pipe the World Series into theaters, arenas, auditoriums and private homes across the land. (This would mean night series games and compare with the $3,000,000 per series now paid.) In addition, the company would contribute a huge sum to Frick's office to underwrite and bolster leaky bush leagues, and regard it as a good investment — for the breeding grounds of the game are going to weeds. Let's face it.

PARIS — French Premier Michel Debre on the indicated victor of President de Gaulle's plan for Algeria:

"The nation has surmounted its divisions and has expressed deep confidence."

YOU HEAR SO much of Harry Truman's acid assessments of men and the times (he even put a blast on "The Missouri Waltz" the other day) that one is inclined to forget his remarkably warm nature.

Not long ago I called on him in his office at the Truman Library in Independence. We are hardly intimates.

"What brings you to this neck of the woods?" he asked. I told him that my wife and I had flown to Kansas City to be near my wife's mother, who had incurred a stroke.

"Where is she?" he asked.

I TOLD HIM she was in Research Hospital. He picked up one of the phones on his crowded desk. I could hear a man's voice answer immediately. Mr. Truman put his hand over the mouthpiece of the phone and asked the patient's name and room number. Then he said into the phone:

"You have a Mrs. Anderson in room 223, Doctor. Please treat her as if she was a member of my family." (They did, too.)

It was his direct wire to the hospital. I tried to thank him, but he cut me off.

"What are friends for anyway?" he said tartly, and went on with the interview.

The City of Palm Springs will soon have an official seal. City Council this week accepted a color sketch painted by Earl Cordrey from among several designs submitted. The round design features desert and palm trees in the foreground, further back the skyline of the city, the looming snow-capped bulk of San Jacinto and overall a golden sun radiating beams.

Possibility of a special election this spring or next fall to determine whether Palm Springs is to have a Council-Manager form of government was foreseen in many local quarters this week. While the general public may not have been aware of the fact, the idea of a city manager has been under serious discussion here for more than a year. Most civic leaders, who have studied the situation, are of the opinion such a change in or addition to the municipal governing body is necessary for civic efficiency.

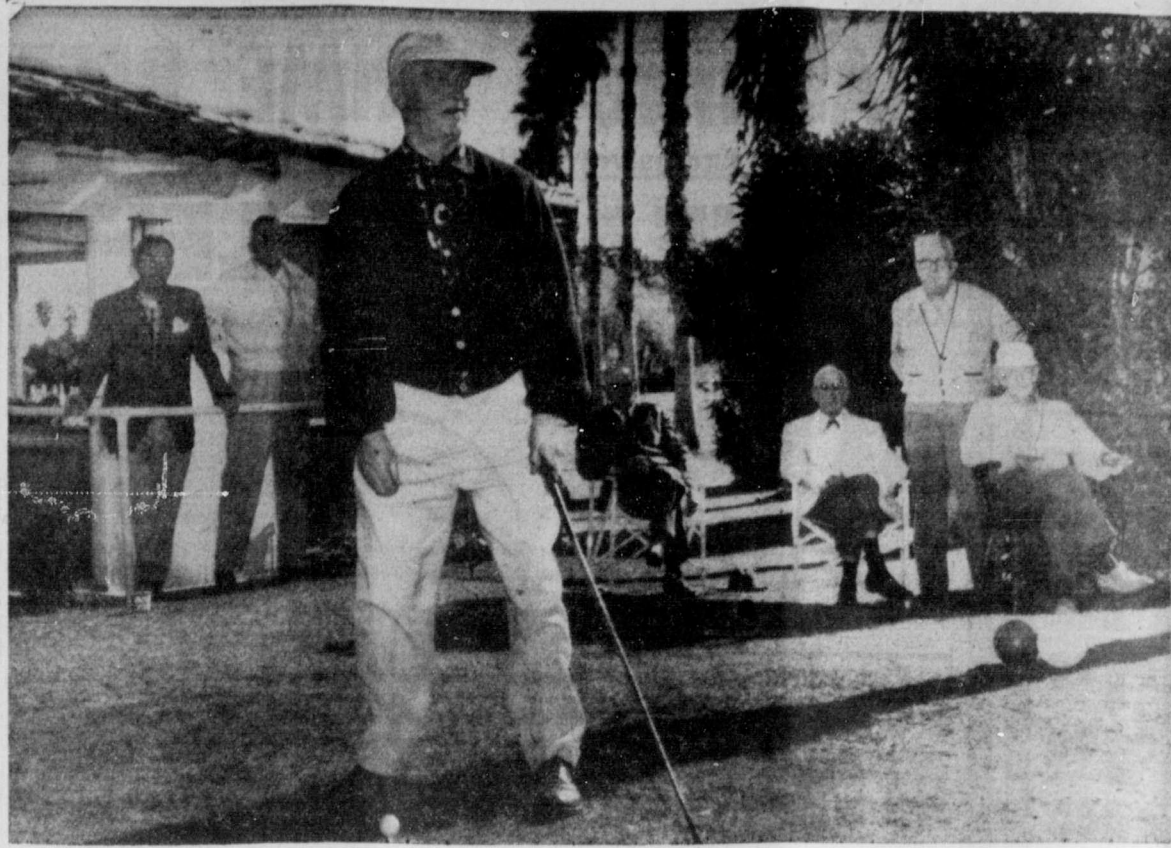

In the January-February issue of the excellent specialized magazine, "The Western Horseman," is an interesting article about Palm Springs' newest riding club, Los Compadres.

Owens and Weller Cling to Lead in Senior Tournament

Best Ball 55 Card Holds Up

Leo Owens of Thunderbird CC and Stan Weller of Los Angeles CC held on to their three-stroke lead in the January best ball twosome tournament of the Palm Springs Desert Senior Golf association as the rest of the field failed to lower the gap Tuesday at O'Donnell Golf Club.

Owens and Weller played Monday as the first half of the large field teed off. The remainder played Tuesday.

THEY STROKED a best ball 55 to lead by three. None of the teams Tuesday could do better than 58. The tournament swings to Tamarisk Country Club today for the second round of 18 and moves on to Thunderbird Country Club Thursday for the final round of the 54-hole event.

Fred Allemen and J. N. Peterson and Maurice Rattray and William Romero also fired 58s Tuesday to go into a tie for second place with Gail Cave and Ray Jones, defending champions.

FIRST DAY'S best ball foursome honors went to Owens, Weller, Frank Hoy and L. L. Oakes. Their 52 scored on Monday stood up against assaults by other foursomes Tuesday.

New foursome pairings will compete at Tamarisk today for the daily foursome prize.

Stan Weller's 70, minus an 8 handicap, gave him low net of 62 for the first 18.

Pro Bowl Game Has Gamblers Stumped Today

LOS ANGELES — The East and West teams returned to their practice drills today to prepare for Sunday's National Football League pro bowl in Memorial Coliseum.

Baltimore quarterback Johnny Unitas, working out as the signal caller for the West All-Stars, showed his pitching accuracy Wednesday when he connected with 10 out of 11 attempts in drills.

The game is expected to be so close that even the odds makers seem to be having trouble agreeing. Bookies in Las Vegas were reported favoring the East team quarterbacked by Philadelphia's Norm Van Brocklin by three points. But odds makers in Los Angeles were favoring the West by one point.

Lakers Defeat Knicks 117-104

LOS ANGELES — The Los Angeles Lakers, glad to see the New York Knickerbockers in town for a couple of National Basketball Association games, try for a second straight win over the Eastern Division weaklings tonight at the Sports Arena.

Led by Elgin Baylor's 35 points, the Lakers defeated the Willie Naulls-led Knicks 117-104 Tuesday night.

THE POWERFUL 18 - member NCAA council which showed mercy Monday in lifting suspensions against three schools contrasted its action Tuesday in handing out penalties.

North Carolina, Arizona and Loyola University of New Orleans were found guilty of violating the recruiting code and were placed on one-year probation.

The basketball teams of North Carolina and Loyola were prohibited from competing in NCAA championships as well as such other top tournaments as the National Invitational and the Holiday Festival in New York City.

Arizona escaped sanctions because the school conducted its own inquiry into football recruiting violations and reported its findings voluntarily to the NCAA.

PHILADELPHIA — Pitcher Jack Meyer, who threatened to quit baseball last May after being fined 15 days' salary for "horse play," has signed his contract with the Philadelphia Phillies for 1961.

NEW YORK STATE Athletic Commission may vacate his title at Friday's meeting.

The NBA vacated his title in September for his long delay in defending. He hasn't risked the crown since Aug. 12, 1959, in his second bout with Canadian Yvon Durelle. That was 17 months ago. New York is not a member of the NBA.

On Dec. 22, the New York Commission gave Archie 20 days in which to close for a defense—or else. His deadline would be midnight Thursday. If negotiations for a Schoepner fight are nearly closed, the deadline probably would be extended to Friday, at least.

Stanford Knocks Bears Out of Big Five Cage Lead

By MIKE HUDSON
United Press International
Like Silky Sullivan, the California Bear basketball team often falls way behind in the early going before coming on with a rush. And like Silky Sullivan—that rush often falls a little short against top-flight competition.

In a stunning upset Tuesday night, Stanford invaded the Bears den and emerged with a 33-32 win to give California three straight losses and just about nullify all Bear hopes for a third straight Big Five and Pacific Coast cage title.

Stanford grabbed a huge 35-20 halftime margin, but California roared back to within a point with two and a half minutes to go. Bub Bowling's two free throws and a key traveling violation in the closing seconds preserved the upset win for Stanford, who captured only their fourth victory against six losses.

Who will be the Coast's best this year? Best bets would seem to be either UCLA or USC. The Bruins are 1-1 in Big Five play, 8 - 3 for the season, and 10th ranked in the nation. They face Arizona and the angry young men from California at Los Angeles this weekend. The Trojans are 2-0 in league play and 11-2 for the season. They host erratic Washington twice.

Broncs, Yucaipa Score Easy Win In Non-Leaguers

Banning High's Broncs and Yucaipa's Thunderbirds demonstrated Tuesday night that they are the teams to beat in the Desert Valley League basketball race.

The Broncs topped San Jacinto, one of the DeAnza League favorites 48 to 38 in a non-league game and Yucaipa ran over Beaumont 65-50.

In another practice game involving a DVL team El Centro defeated Indio's Rajahs, 49 to 25.

AFL Expansion Is Set for Next Year

NEW YORK — Keeping in step with the rest of professional sports, the American Football League expects to expand to 10 teams for the 1962 season, taking on new franchises in Philadelphia and Chicago, according to AFL expansion chairman, Harry Wismer.

MEYER SIGNS CONTRACT

PHILADELPHIA — Pitcher Jack Meyer, who threatened to quit baseball last May after being fined 15 days' salary for "horse play," has signed his contract with the Philadelphia Phillies for 1961.

German Fighter Top Man of Middles

NEW YORK — Erich Schoepner of Germany became the "big man" in the light-heavyweight division today — assured of a shot at either Archie Moore's chunk of the split crown or the National Boxing Association's vacant version.

Schoepner, champion of Europe, agreed Tuesday night to fight Harold Johnson of Philadelphia for the vacant NBA diadem in case he can't get a quick crack at Archie Moore's laurels.

Moore, 45, is negotiating frantically through Manager Jack (Doc) Kearns to close before Friday for a profitable defense against Schoepner. Otherwise Irony is provided by the fact that the center—which has food and medical aid—was only a short distance away. UN Congo Situation Dangerous Enigma

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
As the Congo moves closer to outright civil war, the United Nations finds itself increasingly in a position in which it neither can accomplish its mission of restoring peace, nor, with honor, extricate itself.

Part of the difficulty lies in the restrictive nature of the assignment.

WHEN THE 20,000-MAN United Nations emergency force began moving into the Congo last July, it was ordered to restore and maintain the peace until such time as Congolese forces were able to take over.

At the same time, it was told to avoid scrupulously interference in internal Congo affairs.

But even before the troops arrived, the Congolese republic already was beginning to disintegrate.

ON JULY 11, TWO days before U. N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld's appeal to the security council for troops to be sent to the Congo, Katanga Province Premier Moïse Tshombe had announced the "total independence" of Katanga from the central regime in Leopoldville.

Similar threats of secession came from the neighboring province of Kasai and from Equator. In Kasai, Albert Kalonji proclaimed the independent "mining state."

MEANWHILE, BELGIUM which had supported Patrice Lumumba as a lesser of evils to become premier of a Congolese republic under a strong central government, switched its allegiance to President Joseph Kasavubu and to Kasavubu's strongman, Col. Joseph Mobutu.

It continued to maintain military advisers in Katanga and Kasai provinces and placed other advisers at the disposal of Mobutu.

There was a suspicion but no hard evidence that the Lumumba forces were receiving aid from Russia and advice from Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic.

THERE ARE, THEN, the prospects of a three-way split in the Congo with the United Nations powerless to intervene.

Mineral-rich Katanga would split off by itself in close alliance with Belgium. The Kasavubu forces would hold the area around Leopoldville, and the Lumumba forces most of the northern half of the country.

The Kasavubu regime shows increasing reluctance to heed a Western call for a reconvening of parliament, apparently out of fear of a Lumumba victory. A round-table conference of Congolese leaders now scheduled for Jan. 25 may be a last hope.

Salton Aero Club Formation Told

An organizational meeting to form the Salton Aero Club as a chapter of the National Aeronautic Association will be held on Saturday, January 14, 7 p.m. at the Palm Springs Airport Cafe, it was announced by Herbert Stoltmann, temporary chairman of the club.

Those who want to enroll as charter members should make an effort to be present at this meeting, Stoltmann said.

Mr. Ralph Whitener, Executive Director of NAA from Washington, D. C., will speak at the meeting and assist in establishing the new club. Election of officers will follow and a future activities and meeting schedule drawn up for the new aero club. A movie on the Air Force Thunderbirds furnished by the Flying great-grandmother, Zeddie Bunker, will also be shown.

In addition to Stoltmann, the following temporary officers are assisting with plans for this meeting: acting secretary, Oren Beck of Riverside, and acting publicity chairman, Eleanor Wagner, Palm Springs. For further details on the Salton Aero Club, phone Palm Springs, 324-3128 or 324-4546.

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI) — Champlain College Dean Walter Nardelli says, "Junior colleges will increase in number tremendously in the next 10 years." He said "there is a need for junior colleges to train mechanics and middle management personnel."

No State Tax Cut—Brown

SACRAMENTO (UPI) —Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today there is no room for a substantial reduction in state taxes this year.

Brown told a news conference that legislators proposing tax cuts should wait until they see his proposed budget for 1961-62 which will be submitted Jan. 25. Growth of the state plus rising unemployment and prison population make sizeable tax reductions impractical, Brown said.

Palm Springs, California, Wednesday, January 11, 1961

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

It will be carnival time at the Racquet Club ... on January 20th ... when the Club holds the first of its big social events ... a Carnival in Rio Party ... which will honor Brazilian Consul Raul de Smanek ... who is a frequent Palm Springs visitor ... It's a costume affair ... but costumes need not be strictly Brazilian ... but may range from a John Morris clown to Zsa Zsa at an elegant soiree ... from a turbaned maharajah to a summertime tourist on Palm Canyon Drive ... Anything goes and there will be prizes for the most beautiful ... the zaniest ... and the most original ... and the menu will be an exotic one ...

When Herb Rogers (the original Playhouse producer ... who now has two theatres in Highland Park, Illinois) ... stopped off for a day in Palm Springs on his way back to New York from Seattle ... he was introducing his bride to Village friends ... She is the former Roberta Golub of Seattle ... and has nothing to do with the theatre ... having been a dental assistant ...

Herb went to Seattle to attend the wedding of his younger brother Sid ... met Bobbie ... and two weeks later they were married ... That was last September ... and they have made a date with the stark for next summer ...

They have been in Brentwood with Vic Jory for the New Years holidays ... Herb, who's missing Palm Springs, swore he'd sell papers to stay here ...

The Tennis Club's Friday night seafood buffet has always been a popular one ... and the first of the season drew a record crowd ... The buffet table ... offering shrimp and crab, lobsters and salmon ... and oysters on the half shell ... offset by a variety of salads and hot casseroles ... was the center of interest ...

In the dinner crowd were Bertha and Ed Robbin, Mrs. Harold Bell Wright ... Mrs. Ward Warner of New York, Ned MacGurn, David Hughes, Edna Burton of Los Angeles, Marie Robinson of Palo Alto ...

The Phil Regans arrived with a large party ... which included Don Jackson (Assistant Secretary of Defense), Col. Tom Bass, Dick Elwood ... Winsome Courtney, the Warren Dorns (L. A. County Supervisor), Gene Gobel ... The Junior Cotillion was going on in the Venetian Room that night ... and while the youngsters danced and drank punch ... the Ken Kirks, Lester Self, George Berkes, Ralph Hales and others took turns at the buffet ...

When El Mirador resumed its Sunday Brunch this week ... after a holiday recess ... it drew the usual enthusiastic crowd and offered a fine program of entertainment ... emceed by cowboy singer Johnny Boyle ...

Judging by the continued applause drawn by the young Villagers (five Palm Springs High School students) they were the hit of the show ... This is a singing trio backed by piano and drums ... and they are in the rock and roll mood ... with an occasional original song ...

Toni Boyle sang and danced ... and was delightful as ever ... The promising young dance team of Frances Romero and Jeff Isenagie performed ... and there was even dancing to the music of the Lamplighters (a segment of the Eddy Howard band) ... It was a good program and a long one ... As we were leaving people were beginning to arrive for the Twilight Buffet dance ... though it wouldn't start for an hour or so ...

Judge Merrill Brown and his family were brunching ... Brig. Gen. Teversham (Ret.) of Ensworth, England and Miss Vicky Wood were there ...

The Earl Hendersons had their daughter and son-in-law the Earl Kings of Alaska with them ... The Gordon Browns had a large party ... which included Beth Fisher and the Gene Alfreds of Indian Wells ... Carolyn Seeman, the Orin Gilberts, Stan Ellisons ... Elgin Bassetts ... their daughter Judy Brown and her weekend houseguest Nikki Clarke, Sandy Gilbert and Jeff Arnold ... The Baxter convention crowd occupied one end of the Silver Palm Room ...

The Frank Ryans were there ... and the Vernon Reinhardt ... who had with them his sister Mrs. M. R. Owings of Minneapolis ...

Dropped in at the Hilltop Room for an early Sunday night dinner ... Candles glowed on the tables ... a fire burned in the fireplace ... and from our widow table ... we could glance out and see the lights of Palm Springs ... We lingered over freshly cooked shrimp in a just-right cocktail sauce ... and hot onion soup ... and crisp green salad with Roquefort ... and by the time the tender steaks and ground sirloin broiled with consommé arrived ... Raoul and Gustavo were there to serenade us at the table ... and we stayed to sip leisurely cups of coffee and sank ... It was all so pleasant and relaxing that I never did ask ... who were occupying the tables around us ...

Monday night ... we dropped into the Ranch Club ... and found Billie and Ron Ellis dining with Gordon and Helen Pascal ... who are going to stage the Antiques and Decorator Show here January 25 - 29 ... with Billie the St. Paul's Guild chairman for the benefit opening night ...

Tom Powers of the Bonaires was there ... with publicist George Shaw ... Tom is staying in one of the Club cottages and with his Los Angeles friends of the Ted Alexanders ... who are also at the Club ...

Tom was showing us a color snapshot of his mother Florence standing in the driveway ... her Garden City home ... beside her new black-long white convertible ... surrounded by snow ... snow ... snow ...

The Earl Hendersons had their daughter and son-in-law the Earl Kings of Alaska with them ... The Gordon Browns had a large

SEAFOOD BUFFETS were resumed at the Tennis Club this weekend and will be a weekly feature. Here Mrs. Harry Grabiner of Chicago, who is occupying the Joseph Grabiner

Playhouse Postpones It's Opening

Michael and Marrian Ferrall ... announced today that due to unforeseen difficulties in the schedule of their first star, who will open the Playhouse season with "Marriage - Go - Round," they have postponed the opening for one week.

The play will open on Tuesday night, January 24th, instead of a week earlier as previously announced. The first of the First Nighter Dinners at the Tennis Club will also be held on the 24th. The Ferralls also announced that the first ticket in the Subscription Books may be used as an extra anytime during the season. Subscribers are also advised to keep the cover of the books as these will be good for an additional admission at the end of the season.

Launch Seniors Program

An extensive and vital Senior Citizens program, filling a gap in volunteer services, will be launched at the mid-year meeting of the Executive Board of B'nai B'rith Women, District Four, January 14, 15, and 16, at the Hollywood Knickerbocker Hotel, Hollywood.

Fifty-one members of the Board, headed by Mrs. Irving L. Wieder of Sherman Oaks, will discuss the project as well as expansion of the Leadership Training Program, adoption of an Administrative Budget, and presentation of a Policy and Laws Committee report.

The sessions will open with a Champagne Party, January 14, followed by a message of welcome from Mrs. Wieder. This will be the first meeting of the Board since the B'nai B'rith Convention last July.

The Board members represent some 20,000 B'nai B'rith Women in 130 Chapters from San Diego to Vancouver, B. C.

Among Los Angeles leaders attending are Mmes. George Sheff, Leonard Lake, Joseph Stone, Irvin Grant, Birdie Stodel, Bessie Schwab, Sylvia Vener, Blanche Kramer Block, Herman Papock and Israel Borne.

Others are Mmes. Bernard Lavine, Adolph Kadesch, Moe Kudler, David Harris, Seymour Buchsbaum, Hoard Zimmerman, Gilbert Denton, Louis Kash, Maurice Turner, Leon Antokal, Meyer Brownstein and Marshall Ehrenberg.

Ranch Club Packs Them in for Popular Sunday Brunch

There wasn't a seat available at Ranch Club's sensational Sunday Brunch. The capacity crowd enjoyed a brunch ranging from chop suey and spareribs to eggs and sweet potatoes.

Following brunch the show started with a bang and kept up for some 60 minutes without a let up. Openers were Clessa Williams and Wally Harpst (backed up by his trio) singing the unforgettable "Blood on the Ground" which led to a few riotous comedy routines by Duke Mitchell, silver on the floor, egg on one man's face and a whole lot of fun.

Ted Rogers from the Naughty Nineties room did a couple of numbers player piano style and Tony and Virginia came over from Cathedral City's Tampico (she plays the piano accompanied by Tony with the rhythmic instruments and they both sing). Virginia just returned from Europe where she has been touring with Katherine Dunham for one and one half years.

Jane Saylor, who will open at the Riviera on the 19th, was called out of the audience to do a couple of numbers, which she did with gusto, and with one of those real great blues voices.

Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. Robert A. McClintock who bought the first Ranch Club golf course home with Mrs. Esther Parsons of Westchester and Paul Moore from Toluca Lake (he owns Bob's Drive Ins); agent Jack Pommeroy with his wife, Josephine Earl (she's a choreographer with Paramount); Dr. and Mrs. Lannes

C.C. Juniors Sponsoring Dimes Drive

Mrs. Ed Wills, chairman, reported on the progress of the March of Dimes Drive, when Cathedral City Junior Women's Club held its regular meeting. The drive is being sponsored by the Club, and chairmen were given their instructions for distributing coin holders and posters throughout Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert. After the meeting members addressed over 1500 mailers to be sent to local residents.

Following the brief business meeting, Club president Mrs. Harold Bentley and Mrs. Otto Paulsen, president of the Cathedral City Woman's Club, conducted initiation of seven new members, in an impressive candlelight ceremony. New members receiving their Junior pins were Mmes. Ed Ballard, Harvey Cooper, Douglas Hunt, Wayne Kizer, Jim Schultz, Joe Thornburg and William Wilson.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. George Hall and Mrs. Ed Ballard. The table was decorated in a New Year's theme and delicious German chocolate cake was served with coffee.

The next meeting will be held at the Town Hall, January 17, at 8 p.m. Guest speaker will be Don Aiken, teacher at Nellie Coffman Jr. High School, who will speak and show colored slides on his travels in the Iron Curtain countries — Russia, Czechoslovakia, and Poland.

Wheat germ sprinkled on peanut butter sandwiches adds texture and a nuttier flavor. It may also be sprinkled on sweet dessert toppings.

Open House Entertains Hotel Guests

John and Ginger Jerotz, Vista del Sol owners, were hosts to their hotel guests at an informal open house party New Year's Eve. The party was a repeat of the very successful celebration they had at Christmas. In the lobby which was decorated with holiday trimmings, was a handsome buffet table.

Many of the guests were from the Northwest, Northern California, Florida and New York.

Miss Arlene Barnfield of Glendale was honored on her natal day and presented with a decorated bottle of champagne. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Belda of North Hollywood and the L. A. Police Department, paid a surprise visit to their many desert friends.

The party wound up with toasts to the New Year and the many guests adjourned to do the town.

AND DEBUTS FRIDAY, THE 13TH

New Show Doesn't Have a Star

HOLLYWOOD IN — A new television series currently filming has piqued the interest of networks and producers for its departure from other shows on the air.

The newcomer has six leading characters—all unknown to the average viewer.

TITLED "ONE Happy Family" the program doesn't boast a star. If it is well received this month the pattern for situation comedies may be changed at long last from the formula set by "I Love Lucy" four major characters built around two stars and "the couple next door."

Something of a takeoff on the zany antics of the Academy Award movie, "You Can't Take It With You," the new show combines the humor and travails of three generations of one family living under the same roof.

PRODUCER SID Dorfman is the man who took the gamble.

"Either you start out to do a TV show the way it should be done or just try to get it on the air," he said.

"If you just want to get it on the air you come up with a star first, then build a series around him. This way the sponsor has identification with the star, and it's easier for viewers to accept the new character."

AS IT IS, viewers will have to adjust to Dick Sargent, Jody Warner, Chick Chandler, Elisabeth Fraser, Jack Kirkwood and Cheerio Meredith.

"It is difficult to get a show off the ground without a star," Dorfman said. "The guys who are buying are spending somebody else's money and trying to play it as close to the vest as possible."

"If you have a Fred MacMurray ready to go, you just call up an advertising agency and they say, 'When do you want to go on the air?' They aren't worried about anything else."

"The audience helps perpetuate the situation. Viewers are looking for familiar names and faces. Well, we have six unfamiliar names and faces. Six characters give us more combinations of situations."

Dorfman is optimistic about the show's future, despite its debut date—Jan. 13 (Friday) on the National Broadcasting Co.

SANDPIPER

Holidays 'Family Affair' at Co-Op

All four units of the Sandpiper own-your-own apartments in Palm Desert buzzed with activity last weekend, with baby 1961 receiving a real desert reception.

Parties large and small were sprinkled about the Sandpiper pools.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Walther Fernholz entertained their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Petrie of North Hollywood. Mr. Petrie is in real estate in the valley. The foursome joined the New Year well-wishers at the Shadow Mountain Club.

One of the happiest of New Year parties took place at the Ray Ewings. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Bishop of South Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Marc Leh of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morrison of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maxwell of Rancho Santa Fe. Several of the couples occupied the Robert Tritt apartment.

New owners Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Albright saw in the New Year as they occupied their Sandpiper home for the first time. They visited several desert friends over the "eve" and enjoyed New Year's day around the Sandpiper pool.

In the Carl DeVries apartment were the DeVries daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carroll, with their friends, the Gene Royers and the Erwin Tupens of Los Angeles. Thunderbird was their New Year's eve stopping place and they too enjoyed the desert weather and pool side relaxation the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Steinert and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gudie were entertained at cocktails for New Year's day at the William Seifers, followed by dinner for the sixsome at the Shadow Mountain Club.

The Seiter were the perfect New Year's eve hosts to a half a dozen of their Sandpiper friends. Cocktails, and champagne at midnight were included in the evening.

On hand were Mr. and Mrs. George Osborn and Mr. Osborn's mother, Mrs. Frank Pearson of Long Beach, Sandpiper sales head Jack Enders and his mother from Medford, Ore., Mrs. Marjorie McInerney, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conly, the William Walkers and Mrs. Seiter's sister, Mrs. Hodge.

Others who dropped by included the Ted Brauns, the Kirk Steinerts, the Gudies and the Albrights. To make the evening more successful for hosts and guests alike, the Seifers' attractive daughter Jessica was on hand to serve as "official photographer."

The Robert Walkers enjoyed a quieter eve at their cottage with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Pollard Simon. They saluted the little '61 with champagne at midnight. Mr. Walker took son Bobby and Hoagy Carmichael, Jr., to Las Vegas for a few days between the holidays.

More champagne at the midnight magic hour was enjoyed at the Robert Lintz apartment. On hand were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kraft and their family, Wendie, Nollinda and Tammy. Cheese fondue went along with the bubbling water with the children tucked into bed.

At the Earl Phillips apartment was their attractive daughter, Cecilia, and her husband, Richard Lippincott and children, Phillip and Andy. The Lippincotts are from Orange County's Tustin area and celebrated in desert fashion at midnight with a midnight swim, of course.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Plonsky entertained one of Mr. Plonsky's seven sisters, and her husband, the H. M. Gillers of San Gabriel. They enjoyed seeing the New Year in at the Shadow Mountain Club.

Also on hand at the club was Mrs. Claypo Liddel and her brother, Commander Larry Tailer. Guests were Mrs. Liddel's daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Enzensperger with their children, Janet, Elizabeth and Joseph, Jr., all from Pacific Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheldon enjoyed a quiet New Year's eve in their beautifully decorated Sandpiper apartment. They were at the desert from their Los Angeles home and will entertain guests this week. Dr. and Mrs. George Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Early Metzow of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Dorothy Root has returned

CITY LARGEST IN BUILDING IN COUNTY

City of Palm Springs can lay claim to the largest building valuation in Riverside County in 1960, city chief building inspector John C. Sanders reported today.

Palm Springs issued 1,494 permits with a valuation of $18,374,796, compared to Riverside with 2,314 permits for $17,515,358.

to the Sandpiper after a chilling vacation in Des Moines, Iowa, with her children.

Back from Denver are Mrs. Zach Brinkerhoff and her son, Tommy. The family enjoyed their traditional Yule holiday in the Rocky Mountain city.

Other Sandpiper returnees included Ruby Guest, Mrs. Guest arrived today from Mexico where she spent an enjoyable vacation traveling with her sister.

The holiday weekend was the home of Sandpiper developer, George Holstein III and his wife Elinor. Traditionally the Holsteins and their children follow Christmas with a desert stay. On hand as guests were Judge and Mrs. Robert Gardner of Corona del Mar with their children, Nancy and Patty. Also enjoying the Holstein hospitality were Newport Beach insurance executive, Don Anderson and his wife with sons, Rick, Tom and Bob.

$1,867,545 Suit Award Nullified

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court today nullified a $1,867,545 damage suit award against the government in the Dixon-Yates case on grounds the contract was "tainted" by a federal adviser's conflict of interest.

By a 6-3 decision, the court held the contract was invalidated legally because of the activities of New York investment banker Adolphe H. Wenzell who served as a consultant when the Dixon-Yates combine won the $107 million power plant award in 1954.
